WORK GOING AHEAD ON WEST VALLEY GROUNDS

Much has been said and written about the return of amateur rodeo events to Drayton Valley, to be held in regulation size facilities. The sponsoring organizations are now in a position to give everybody in the area a more precise view of what kind of facilities are to be built and what progress has been made so far.

The Drayton Valley Lions Club decided in the spring of last year that it would undertake the gigantic task of constructing regulation-size rodeo facilities in the Lions West Valley Park. The area south of the football field was designated as rodeo grounds and area cleared, levelled and surveyed. In the fall of last year the club was able to complete the drilling, erecting and cementing of all the steel posts necessary.

During recent weeks, work was resumed on the project and part of the 8-foot fence is now ready for the steel wire fencing. But there is still very much to be done, before the grounds are ready.

The area now used by the Gymkhana Club will be cleared, and designated for midway and parking space. The gymkhana and roping clubs will use the new rodeo grounds for future activities.

As soon as the frost is completely out of the ground, the area for the bleachers will be levelled and the foundations poured. The bleachers will be 330 feet long running the entire length of the grounds and will have a seating capacity of 300 persons. This will assure everyone of a very good and unobstructed view of the events.

Lumber for the bleachers will arrive shortly and the framing will be pre-cut by skilled carpenters. To erect the frames and complete the bleachers, the Lions Club seeks the help of all men who can handle a hammer to volunteer the Lions their help in completing this part of the project. Also for the numerous other jobs at the site the Lions hope to get assistance from volunteers in and around the community to make sure that these facilities will be completed and ready for the big rodeo, August 15th and 16th this year.

Members of the Lions Club will be working almost every evening and on Saturday, weather permitting. For further information as to when your volunteer labor can be best utilized, please contact any of the following Lions: D. Gregor, 542-4184; N. White, 542-3835; or G. Miller, 542-3288.

Legislature Report

BY RALPH JESPERSEN, M.L.A.

The Legislature Thursday night approved Alberta's $979,312,275 budget for the 1969-70 fiscal year. This concluded some 20 days and more than a dozen nights of examining the estimates dollar by dollar for every department of the government.

The estimates of the Department of Health was the last department to be examined. The Minister of Health, the Honourable Dr. Ross, announced to the members that he was now requesting to be relieved from this portfolio after serving as its Minister for twelve years. Words of praise from the Premier and members of the Opposition for the years of good service to the public by the Minister were very spontaneously given.

There was a Bill introduced to ease property tax on pensioners. The Bill will mean doubling the present $50 Homeowner's Tax Discount to $100 for low income Old Age Pensioners who are now receiving the guaranteed income supplement. This extra tax discount could tap the Privincial Treasury to the tune of $1,254,000.

Bill 35 on Equalized Assessment

With strong opposition from Urban Municipalities to the amendment to the equalized assessment act to hold the present urban and rural equalized assessment concept, the Minister of Municipal Affairs called a hearing at which a brief from the Urban Municipal Associations was presented which opposed Bill 35, on the basis that there was a discrepancy between rural and urban equalized assessments; urban assessments being 38% of actual value. The brief also opposed the top value of $40 per acre on agricultural land.

The Alberta Association of Municipal Districts and Counties and the Farmers' Union of Alberta also presented two separate briefs supporting the Bill. They stated that the farming population is paying their share and more of property taxation. It was pointed out by a survey taken that the average assessment for urban pupils is $5,567 where the average for rural students is $9,328. On a per capita basis for every 70 cents paid into the Foundation Programme by Urban dwellers, the Rural dwellers pay $1.00. This is approximately $4,090 more assessment per capita by rural municipalities than urban municipalities, and with this the urban municipalities have the large industrial developments to supplement their assessments. The rural people paid 8% of their income on property tax where non-farm residents paid 3.9%.

The two supporting briefs felt that the top value of agricultural land should not be raised from the present $40 on the grounds that farm income has been static, and the top value should be based on productive value, also that agricultural land is used only about 120 days per year.

The Bill will be up for second reading on the week of April 28th.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor,
The Western Review,
Drayton Valley.

Dear Sir:

I should like to take this opportunity to express sincere thanks to the Kinsmen's Club of Evansburg, under the chairmanship of Mr. John Panek, for having sponsored the recent Marek Jablonski recital. An event such as this is a rare priviledge, especially for a small rural community.

Despite the fact that Mr. Jablonski is an internationally renowned concert pianist and is acknowledged as one of the world's leading Chopin exponents, the audience was disappointingly small. However, it proved to be a courteous and appreciative one and this in itself helped to compensate for the sparse attendance.

Let us hope that next season will bring more of these celebrity concerts and a greater interest and enthusiasm on the part of the general public. Those of us in the music profession are fully aware of the great need for more and better cultural amenities in the outlying areas of this province.

The provincial government is to be congratulated on having started the wheels in motion. Now, it is up to us to co-operate and support every effort that is made in the cause of music and the other performing arts.

Thanking you, Sir,
I am,
Yours sincerely,
Elizabeth Tkachyk

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Members Needed

Attendance at F.U.A. rallies in the past has impressed this writer with the amount of work being done by this active group of Alberta farmers for the benefit of the whole industry.

The farm industry, however, needs far more work than this already dedicated group can provide. It needs the active support of a great many more farmers to provide a unified voice in negotiations on behalf of agriculture.

Tradesmen make their unions effective bargaining powers with the closed shop. A closed shop policy among independent farmers appears a rather formidable undertaking. Farmers must weigh the facts for themselves and make a decision.

A single voice for all farmers would be a very loud one. You could help yourself and your neighbor by making this the year to get out and push for a truly unified rural union.

Magazine Bugs

We don't know whether magazine publishers are aware of the irritation they cause readers --- if not we should point out that those cardboard inserts drive this reader up the wall.

You settle down to read your favorite magazine and after turning two pages the third is flipped up by a cardboard tag bearing a message from some advertiser who feels he's getting a better bargain than the run of the mill group.

Actually, he's getting less than a bargain in losing all the readers who go through the magazine before starting to read, and ripping all the lumpy inserts out and chucking them in the garbage without a glance.

The riders who carried mail in England in the 1480's had no trouble with transportation. They registered horses by "the royal right of purveyance", and paid practically whatever they chose.

F.U.A. District Convention Held at Wildwood Hall

About fifty people were present in the Wildwood Community Hall for the F.U.A. Sub District 5 Convention on Friday, April 11th.

Principal speaker for the occasion was F.U.A. President Paul Babey who congratulated the canvassers that had worked on the membership drive, and reported the membership has increased this year. He spoke of the benefits obtained for farmers so far and stated that a strong organization is needed to deal with agricultural problems.

He spoke of the advantages and disadvantages of proposed changes in the organization which may be set up next year. This will be published in the Organized Farmer and he urged all locals to study these different structures and decide which would be best.

At the close of his talk he answered many of the member's questions. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Babey.

Mr. Mike Mazeppa, Sub Director, reported that he had visited some of the locals, attended A.R.D.A. meetings, attended nearly all District 5 Board meetings, and was present at a Rural Electric meeting.

Officers elected for the coming year are: Mr. Mike Mazeppa, Evansburg, re-elected as Sub Director for Sub District 5. Mr. Allan Ditner, Wildwood, elected as Alternate Sub Director. Mrs. L. Riehl, Wildwood, re-elected as F.W.U.A. Sub Director.

Mrs. L. Riehl, F.W.U.A. Sub Director, reported that she had visited some of the locals, enjoyed the work very much, even though the job was new to her, had attended some of the Board meetings.

Mrs. K. Manfield, F.W.U.A. Director, reported that she was very pleased to attend the Sub District 5 Convention again. She quoted from a book printed in 1916 - U.F.A. membership was a 27.4% sign-up, individual membership was $1.00 Juniors and Womens Auxiliary 25 cents and many of their resolutions were the same problems as today.

Mrs. Manfield also stated that a conference was held in Lansing, Michigan with 2000 country women from all over the world present.

She urged all locals to carefully study the proposed changes in the organization, so that when the time of decision comes next December all will be able to work together for the good of all farmers.

Mr. Grant Gilland, A.R.D.A. Co-ordinator, stated that the agricultural program was discussed at a meeting in Edson, with the local F.U.A. Presidents who were to take back the information to the local meeting.

Mr. Gary Miller, District Agriculturist of Evansburg, stated it was a pleasure to attend the convention. He hopes to get to know more of the farmers in the area, and said farm organizations are very essential to the prosperity of the country.

Two resolutions were read one concerning the survey that was taken on seed cleaning plant and the other concerning non returnable bottles which are a hazard to roads and highways. Both resolutions were passed.

The Chairman announced that the Wildwood and District Agricultural Society is sponsoring a contest on grain fields and farm beautification.

Mr. Emie Fahrion, District 5 Director, reported that he had expected to see a better turn out of members, and was interested in the reports from the locals and especially likes to see support given to the 4-H clubs. He congratulated canvassers on the membership drive, but stated there are still lots of farmers who haven't joined the F.U.A.

He outlined plans for next year's membership drive. More members are needed so that the problems of the farmers can be dealt with on a larger scale.

District Locals reported on activities during the year with Mrs. Florence Haggart reporting for Chip Lake; James Currie for Hattonford; Paul Lemishka for Lutz Grove; and Pete Kreminuk for the Style Local.

Mrs. Ellen White of Drayton Valley, winner of the major prize in the Lions Club $1,000 Bingo Friday night, accepts her $500 cheque from club President Fred Schipper.

RABBI GINSBURG SLATED FOR SPORTSMEN'S DINNER

Rabbi Lewis Ginsburg, a former sportswriter who has rubbed shoulders with many of the great stars of sport, will be the headline speaker at the Thorsby Lions Club's Second Annual Sportsmen's Dinner June 5th.

Witty and full of personal reminisces about his acquaintance with such stars as Joe Louis, Joe DiMaggio, Yogi Berra and many others, Rabbi Ginsburg is considered one of the best after-dinner speakers in the province.

Dinner chairman Harold Stein, aiming for a star-studded head table, announced another big name.

He said Johnnie Bright, longtime star of the Edmonton Eskimos, will act as master of ceremonies.

Among other headliners will be Val Fontaine of the Pittsburgh Penguins, Fred Storey of the Ron Northcott rink, and Ron Hayter of the Alberta Baseball Association.

Tickets are $5 and may be obtained from any member of the Thorsby Lions Club. "There are only 250 tickets available, so it would pay to get yours right away," Mr. Stein reminded.

PLANT GOOD SEED

If you want to have potatoes in your garden this summer, plant certified seed potatoes, not eating potatoes, advises the head of Alberta's crop protection and pest control branch J.B. Gurba.

He explains that almost all the table potatoes sold at this time of year by stores and supermarkets have been treated with a sprout inhibitor to prevent them from sprouting during storage. Although this treatment has no effect upon their eating quality, it stops them from growing when planted in the garden.

How Does Your Garden Grow?

By Green Thumbs

This week I'll cover the subject of rock gardens.

There are many gardeners who have the odd spot in their yard which isn't big enough to do much with, but if a little time and imagination were used, could develop into a very interesting corner if transformed into a Rock Garden. If planted properly, and with a little planning, your rock garden can produce blooms from early spring to late fall.

There are not usually too many flowers used in rock gardens that can be cut for arrangements. They are usually all of a fairly low growing variety. A mound of earth with a few petunias on top is not a rock garden, and will likely become an eyesore.

When on picnics a few rocks may be collected, which are of various sizes and shapes, or you can make a special trip just to get your garden rocks. It is a good idea though to have rocks from various places as it makes the project more interesting, when you recall later where they all came from.

Rock plants usually like lots of sun but there are many varieties that do well in semi-shade areas also. An ideal location if no slope is available, is to construct one against a wall or building, then arrange your rocks at an angle so that any rainfall will run back into the soil.

They should be placed irregularly with good pockets of soil in between, not forgetting to condition your soil first (add leaf mould, sand etc.) because once the rocks are in place it is very difficult to do it afterwards. Do not make it appear too organized, as this is not the effect you want from a rock garden, in fact irregularity is essential for a more natural look.

Most seed houses supply packets of seed especially for rock gardens. Bedding plants of portulaca, alyssum and pansies may be used, in fact any low growing variety will put on quite a show. There are also shrubs suitable for these locations as well as a selection for lime-loving plants or wet areas. Crocus and hyacinth bulbs as well as miniature tulips can be planted in the fall to provide those first few blooms of spring.

I will supply a list for anyone needing special varieties, if you direct your request to me with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Green Thumbs, c/o The Western Review, Box 120, Drayton Valley, Alberta.

DESTINATION - NEW YORK

By Carolyn Rosadiuk

Now that all the excitement of my trip to New York is over, but far from forgotten, I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the people who made this most memorable experience possible. To my sponsors, my teachers, the Evansburg High School Students' Union and my parents --thank you.

In an attempt to answer some of the most common questions asked, I shall begin with some background history. The story of my trip actually begins in late August, 1968, at a science seminar which I was fortunate enough to attend. This was held in Edmonton on the U of A campus, where we studied and discussed problems dealing with the theme "Water, A Natural Resource".

From this seminar I was chosen as one of four representatives to the United Nations Seminar this spring, to be held in New York with frequent visits to the UN buildings. Since 1969 was proclaimed Human Rights Year at the UN, the seminar's theme was "Human Rights and the Worth of Man".

My expenses (plane fare and accomodation in New York) were covered by a $300 bursary borrowed from the EHS Students' Union, which the school is still struggling to repay. All other expenses, such as meals, cab and bus fare, entertainment, etc., were my personal responsibility.

Since the plane which we were trying to get on with our "standby" tickets was due to leave at 1.50 a.m., the three other representatives, our parents, our chaperone, Mrs. Joanne Litven, and I spent the evening pacing the airport, worrying, and getting to know one another. How relieved we were to be wisked onto the Air Canada 804 jet only moments before take off.

The plane ride was really fabulous. The flying weather was beautifully clear all night although a few clouds were forming just before sunrise. We arrived in Toronto at 7:10 a.m. their time, then had to wait about three hours before taking a slow bus to New York because the air lines were on strike between Toronto and New York.

By bus we passed through Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Utica, dozens of small towns, and finally after an exhausting twelve-hour bus trip, we arrived in New York City, and checked in at the Hotel Commodore, which was old but beautiful with plenty of atmosphere. By Sunday evening, all of the expected groups had arrived so we began mingling and getting to know one another.

Throughout the week we were restricted to a certain degree by a formal schedule which was planned by the Director and approved by the Director's Committee on which I served as one of the student representatives. Discussions were held on everything from social, moral, political and religious values to the worth of man.

We toured the UN and other official buildings and were briefed by various government officials and diplomats. A panel debate held in the latter part of the week dealt with the problems that the Canadian Indian faces. Other than this every spare moment was spent either touring the fabulous and exciting city of New York, or eating.

My impressions of the city were varied. Downtown Manhattan Island where we were centered was awe-inspiring and fascinating, beautiful and at the same time frighteningly hurried. Outlying districts, such as the Bronx, were very depressing with their acres of red brick tenement buildings. On the whole, we all loved New York as a place to visit, but were glad we had our own wonderful Canada to come home to.

What did I gain from the trip? This question is much too large to answer in a single paragraph. The wealth of experience and deeper understanding of people can only be evaluated by how much they affect the formation of my ideals, beliefs and values in later life. The subject of human rights in itself is one of the most interesting I've yet come across. I believe that this trip has given me a new awareness of the world around me.

Some of the living conditions, both physical and social, are so appalling they would shock and cause concern to any human being. The United Nations is trying to do its part, especially during this, the year of striving for human rights internationally. On the United Nations Plaza site there is a wall engraved with the following words, which I think sums up the aims of the Workshop for Peace. "They Shall Beat Their Swords Into Plowshares, And Their Spears Into Pruning Hooks; Nation Shall Not Lift Up Sword Against Nation, Neither Shall They Learn War Any More.

The Busiest Busybody

He's no snooper, but there's a man who knows a lot about when your wife cooks your morning bacon and eggs.

He also knows about other housekeeping habits —such as when your wife does the laundry or turns up the heat.

He knows this because it's his job to see that the gas for your burners — transported sometimes hundreds of miles from production fields — is ready before your appliance is turned on.

The man who knows isn't really a busybody. He's a highly trained man in charge of obtaining huge quantities of gas from many sources. He must direct its flow through hundreds of miles of pipelines to communities throughout Alberta.

He, and other "dispatchers" like him at key positions on Alberta's gas transmission systems, must see that thousands of gas customers get all the gas they want — regardless of the amount, the time or weather.

To accomplish this, he estimates the demand for gas and the time it is needed in each community. Then he issues orders to maintain just the right gas pressures to deliver the right amount of gas to each community.

To help with his job, the chief has a crew of highly trained assistants.

They keep in constant touch with gas sources in the production fields, the company's compressor stations, points of delivery, underground storage fields, weather stations, regulator stations and customers.

It's a 24-hour-a-day job. Nights, weekends and holidays, trained men are on the job to provide natural gas. And each man has the ability to act in an emergency.

So you can see why the chief dispatcher knows a lot about your household habits. Because he knows just how much gas you need — and when you need it. You can count on natural gas for round-the-clock, round-the-year service.

United Church Setting For Recent Ceremony

The United Church in Drayton Valley was the scene of a double ring ceremony when Maureen Edna, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Waters exchanged marriage vows with Richard Forbes son of Mr. and Mrs. Haggart of McKay on April 19th.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of chantilly lace with long lilypoint sleeves. Nylon flowers in the form of a 'V' set off the lace train attached to the skirt. Her shoulder length veil was of filmy nylon and she wore a cultured pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom. Maureen carried a cascade of white roses tipped with mauve and lillies of the valley.

She was attended by her twin sisters Loretta and Lorna and Vallerie Haggart, a sister of the groom.

The maid of honour wore an Empire gown in yellow with overskirt of lace over taffeta and the bridesmaids wore identical gowns in mauve. They wore tiaras and silver gloves and shoes and carried nosegays of roses. They wore earrings, a gift from the bride.

The groom was attended by his brother Harold Haggart of Edmonton and the best men were Jim King of Edmonton and Bradley Waters, brother of the bride.

The bride was preceeded to the alter by the flowergirl, Debbie Gable, cousin of the bride and dressed in yellow lace and carrying a basket of flowers. She was accompanied by the ring bearer Lloyd Waters, brother of the bride.

The ushers were Bob Schmidt and Darryl Williams.

The mother of the bride wore a three piece rose linen suit with a corsage of pink tipped rosebuds.

The mother of the groom wore a blue lace suit with blue tipped rosebuds.

A dinner was served for 200 guests followed by a reception and dance at the Elks Hall.

The bridal table was centered by a three tiered wedding cake topped with a bridal pair in a cascade of roses.

Mr. Roy Hale presided as Master of Ceremonies and Miss Gail Williams was in charge of the Guest Book.

They will reside in Edmonton on their return from a honeymoon trip to the west coast.

Guests came from several points in Alberta, from Saskatchewan and Newfoundland, Salmon Arm, Spirit River, Fort St. John, B.C.

TAX TIPS

This income tax column has been prepared by the Edmonton District Office, Department of National Revenue, Taxation. The questions used are common ones, and the answers usually straightforward. However, unusual circumstances sometimes alter the answer. If your question isn't answered here, or in the Income Tax Guide, phone 424-0251 in Edmonton or write National Revenue, Taxation, Edmonton for free advice.

1. Q. What shall I do if my address has changed since last year?

A. If your name or address is now different, be sure to make the necessary changes and so this in the "correction" area immediately below the label. Also be sure it is the labelled return that you send to the Data Centre. If your address has changed since filing and you have claimed a refund on your tax return, write to your district taxation office informing them of the change. Many refund cheques are delayed each year as a result of taxpayers changing their address after filing.

2. Q. My son attended university this year and I paid his tuition fees of $600. Can I deduct this from my income?

A. No. Tuition fees are deductible from the income of the student himself, regardless of who paid them or where the money came from However, if they were paid by his employer, the student may make a deduction only if the employer has reported them on the Student's T4.

3. Q. If my wife and I are both working, can one of us claim medical expenses and charitable donations made in the name of the other? We have no dependents.

A. Yes. You may arrange between you to claim your allowable donations and medical expenses to your best advantage. if one claims all the donations and medical expenses the other is entitled to the standard deduction.

4. Q. Must I have a Social Insurance Number?

A. Yes, if you are required to file an income tax return you are required by law to have a social insurance number. Also it is important that the information filed on your social insurance number application is correct as your Canada Pension Plan records will be based on this information.

5. Q. Is it necessary for a farmer to pay his income tax by instalments?

A. The Income Tax Act requires payment of 2/3 of the tax by December 31st and the balance by the following April 30th.

6. Q. I gave $50 to the United Appeal. Can I claim this in addition to the standard deduction of $100.

A. No. You are entitled to claim either the standard deduction of $100, or your charitable donations and medical expenses, but not both in the same year.

They plan to have a work party on Saturday, April 26th to gather some articles which will be of value to the Society.

I.G.A. Plans "Space" Game

An "out of this world" new game with hundreds of chances to win thousands of dollars in prizes, is being introduced by I.G.A. Stores in Alberta, commencing Monday, April 28th.

Mr. Gaehring, in announcing "Space Journey", emphasized that the game is easy to play, and is particularly exciting because of current explorations and discoveries in outer space.

In order to play "Space Journey", one merely has to visit a local IGA Store and ask for a master game card and a sealed game ticket. These are free and no purchase is required at any time to participate in the game.

Most game tickets contain three "Space Journey" perforated tabs which are simple to tear out and apply to the matching spaces on the master game card.

When a player has a winning trip, he brings his game card in to the IGA Store for verification and collects his prize.

Children will enjoy playing the game with their parents. However, game tickets are given to adults only with a limit of one ticket for each visit to an IGA Store.

In addition to regular game playing winners, many lucky customers will be instant winners, depending on what their game ticket indicates.

IGA Store managers invite their customers to pick up their game cards now and start getting in on the fun.

Congratulations . . .

Pembina League Names All Stars

The Pembina High School Basketball League All Star Team was named last week in the boys and girls divisions, which were won by the Drayton Valley Warrios and the Warburg Gems.

In the boy's division Doug Ibbotson of Drayton Valley, was named for the second consecutive season. He scored 553 individual points during the schedule. Also named from the Drayton Warrior squad was Ron Cameron, the outstanding guard and present grade eleven student. Ron had also won all-star acclaim early in the season at the Warburg invitational tournament.

From Warburg were selected two consistent and colorful players, Ron Stevenson, a tall, strong center, and Ed Cunningham, an excellent outside shooter and team player. This was Ed Cunningham's second straight year to be named to the dream team.

Rounding out the boys team is the fine performer and shooter from Thorsby, Gerry Kuzyk, who on many an occasion destroyed opposition teams with his deadly shooting from the right corner.

The girl's division named an extremely strong five in the personalities of Margaret Morden and Elaine Mosicki of the leage champion Warburg Gems. Barbara Dorman from the Thorsby Homettes and Terry Cable and Francis Meraw from the Drayton Warriorette team. Honorable mention also went to Elizabeth Ellis of Breton in the girls division and to Jim Zawartka of Breton and Shelby Laczo of Winfield in the boys.

All these players will be receiving trophies from the league shortly. The two championship squads will be awarded with pennants for their respective schools.

Couple Leaving On European Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gaehring will leave Monday, May 5th for a two-week holiday trip to Spain Morocco and Germany.

Mr. Gaehring, manager of the Drayton Valley IGA, will travel with many other Alberta IGA operators on the trip.

BERRYMOOR NEWS

Russell Gilchrist is the proud owner of a brand new half ton truck.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin left on Sunday evening for a trip to Cloverdale, B.C. for a visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shaw.

The Berrymoor Three B's Club held their April meeting at the home of Isobel Martin on Saturday afternoon with ten members present. The May meeting will be held at the cemetery and will take the form of a clean up day.

Congratulations to Bill Roberts who made it to the finals in the Search For Talent series held in Edmonton on the evening of Friday, April 25th. We understand that he won second prize there. This program was taped and was shown on CFRN - TV on Saturday afternoon. Many folks in the Berrymoor area enjoyed watching Bill perform on T.V.

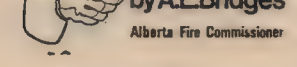
During the Easter holidays Fred Martin went on a trip to Northern Alberta and the Northwest Territories. He was slightly annoyed to find that your correspondent has neglected to mention this fact in the Berrymoor News. So, your trip has now been reported, Fred, even though it is a bit late.

Mr. and Mrs. George Van Ember motored to Wildwood on Sunday. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gerard. Mrs. Gerard is the former Mildred Ramsey, daughter of the first post master at what is now Breton. At this time this district was known as Keystone.

On this same trip they stopped at Chip Lake and had coffee with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Featherstone.

And also stopped and chatted with a couple of university students who were taking samples of bugs and fish eggs from a small creek for study purposes.

All in all it was a most interesting day and the lovely weather was most enjoyable.



SPRING FIRE HAZARDS

Spring fire prevention involves among other things, careful control of open fires. We should all think twice before kindling any fire in rubbish piles, dry grass or stubble. The winds are fitful and lack of green growth makes yards and fields subject to quick fire spread. Last year in Alberta April and May produced the largest loss of any two months of the year and the largest fire of the year was in the month of May.

Perhaps a word of caution about paints and paint thinners is timely in the spring, also great care should be taken in handling flammable solvents used for paint brush cleaning. It is best to mix paint and clean paint brushes in a outside building or in the yard and to destroy all waste thinners and paint rags at the end of the day's work. Accidents with spilled paint thinners and spontaneous heating of paint rags have caused many fires.

Don't have spring clean-up result in a spring burn-up. Discuss with your family their responsibility in preventing fires.

Parents: "We're worried about our son. He can't spell, has terrible penmanship and can't even speak grammatically."

Teacher: "Oh, that don't matter none."

HOCKEY SCHOOL

The possibility of holding a hockey school at the Centennial Civic Centre in late August looms brighter with each passing day. To date well over one hundred boys have answered the interest survey which has been run over the past two weeks. There are many interested in the school from within the town, and a keen interest has been displayed throughout the area also.

To finalize this survey, a survey form is being published in this issue of The Western Review. Any boy interested in this hockey school is asked to fill in the form, clip it out and return it to the Recreation Office at his earliest opportunity. From all indications of the survey so far it would seem that there will be a full slate in attendance at the school which is planned to open on August 25th and run until September 1st. In case that the essential number of applicants to the school is greater than the maximum enrollment capacity, preference will be given to those who answered the survey and those boys will be contacted personally inviting them to register in the school.

Clare Drake, Head Coach of the University of Alberta Golden Bears will be the Director of the school as well as the Chief Instructor. He will have a slate of top instructors on hand for this school.

BASEBALL PROGRESS

A meeting of the Oilfield Minor Baseball League was held in Warburg on Monday, April 21st, to lay out plans for the coming season. Drayton Valley was represented at the meeting by Vic Weishaar and Orest Haydey.

Plans are to operate the league at three levels during 1969, Midget, Bantam and Little Canadian. At the Midget level it is anticipated that teams from Calmar, Warburg, Thorsby, Drayton V. and Breton will take part. The Bantam section of the league will consist of Drayton Valley, Glen Park, Warburg, Breton, Calmar and Thorsby. The Little Canadian category will see two teams from Warburg and one each from Thorsby, Breton, Calmar and Drayton Valley in action in a home and home series schedule.

The age classifications set down at the meeting are as follows: Little Canadian, if 13th birthday falls on or after August 1st, of the playing year; Bantam, if 15th birthday falls on or after January 1st, of the playing year; Midget, if 17th birthday falls on or after January 1st, of the playing year. All games at the Little Canadian level will consist of 6 innings while the Bantams and Midgets will play seven inning games.

The league opens on Thursday, May 8th. The Midgets and the Little Canadians will play on Tuesday and Fridays while the Bantams will play their games on Monday and Thursdays. The schedule will close out around the middle of June. Trophies will be presented to the winning team in each section of the league this year.

Closer to home we hope to have a Town League of four teams or more at the Little Canadian level and a similar league for younger boys, from six to nine years old. Both those leagues should get under way around May 10th, and run through till July 1st.

Coaches are needed for the Little Canadian teams in the Oilfield League as well as for all teams in our proposed Town Leagues.

BOXING

An amateur boxing card has tentatively been scheduled for sometime around the middle of May here in Drayton Valley. The card will likely take place in the B.P.O. Elks Hall if this facility is available at that time. Several local boys have been taking part in the sport during the past years. They are members of the Breton Boxing Club and travel to Breton twice a week in order to partioipate.

Lawrence Duperron is the man who has made it possible for the D.V. boys to take part in the Breton Club. Among the local boys who have done very well in the fistic sport during the past months are Ray and Bert Duperron, Lawrence's two sons. Both boys have taken part in boxing competition all over the province

The boxing card tentatively planned for Drayton Valley promises to be an action packed affair featuring some of the top amateur boxers in Alberta.

POOL NOTES

Work at the Drayton Valley Swimming Pool is progressing favorably. In general the pool was found to be in good condition after such a severe winter. Some painting and minor repairs to the tank and deck as well as some other parts of the facility will be required, however, it would seem logical to expect that the facility will be open around the holiday weekend late in May.

When on the swimming subject congratulations are due to four young people who completed courses in Red Cross Water Safety Training during Easter week in Edmonton. Gwenda Steeves, and Doug Steeves qualified as Red Cross Water Safety Leaders at the Junior Level and in the Senior classification Frances Meraw and Valerie Moody got their qualifications as Red Cross Water Safety Instructors. All four of those young people will take part in some phase of our Water Safety Instruction and general swimming program during the summer of 1969.

Heavy Losses Suffered By Shelterbelt Trees

Tragic as it may sound less than 50 percent of the trees and shrubs that go out to Alberta farmers from government nurseries survive their first year. According to a government spokesman, carelessness and neglect are the main reasons.

H. T. Oosterhuis, tree planting specialist with the provincial department of agriculture reports that approximately 5 percent of the trees distributed to farmers for shelterbelts never even get put into the ground and another 50 percent or more do not survive their first summer. A large number die before reaching maturity, which, in many cases, does not occur until the trees are 20 to 30 years old.

The extent of the loss can be imagined when one realizes that from 1901 to 1950 the Canada Department of Agriculture's Indian Head Nursery in Saskatchewan and another nursery in Saskatoon distributed about 330 million trees in the three prairie provinces. Since its inception in 1950, Alberta's provincial tree nursery at Oliver has distributed another 20 million trees.

What is the cause of such appalling losses? There are a number of contributing factors, says Mr. Oosterhuis, but in the final analysis they all boil down to people! A person who is only halfheartedly committed to growing trees might as well give up before he starts. In 99 cases out of 100, he will only waste his own time and public money.

Planting trees and shrubs too closely together is a very common cause of shelterbelt losses. Without sufficient space to grow and develop, many of these trees die before reaching maturity. In the past both federal and provincial extension offices failed to emphsize overcrowding strongly enough. However, to correct this situation the Alberta Department of Agriculture has recently published a pamphlet entitled "Planting Farm, Field and Roadside Shelterbelts in Alberta". It is available from all district agriculturists' offices.

The type of trees shipped out from tree nurseries has also contributed to the high tree mortality rate. Non-rooted cuttings were often distributed instead of rooted cuttings. However, Mr. Oosterhuis says this practice has now been discontinued. A new tree distribution policy, stipulating that all undersized seedlings must be culled at the nursery, should eliminate the problem.

Disease also takes it's toll of trees in shelterbelt plantings. Many poplars die at an early age because of a fungus disease of the bark called poplar canker. Here again, tree nurseries have contributed to the problem by taking cuttings from diseased stock. However, everything is now being done to see that only healthy cuttings are distributed, says Mr. Oosterhuis. Canker on poplars still remains a serious problem in many shelterbelts, but tree nurseries are attempting to overcome it by introducing more resistant varieties.

Neglect and insufficient care by the farmer who gets the trees is responsible for the greatest number of tree and shrub losses in Alberta, according to Mr. Oosterhuis. He points out that because trees are a long-term investment, farmers are inclined to lose interest in them before they have become sufficiently mature to stand on their own.

Careful planting, good weed and insect control, and adequate protection against fire and livestock are all essential aspects of good shelterbelt management. Although many factors, such as lack of moisture and severe winter weather, make tree growing in this part of the country more difficult than in many other places, a tree that gets a good start and received the necessary early care is much more likely to survive the ravages of disease, insect damage and adverse climatic conditions than one that never got a fair start.

NOTES FOR NURSES

At the April meeting of Chapter #33 it was moved that we write to the A.A.R.N. and Nurse Recruitment Branch suggesting that some changes be made in the present system of Nurse Recruitment, with the administration of same being put in the hands of the A.A.R.N. and not as it is at present, under the Provincial Department of Health.

We have adopted a new patient but will still continue to remember our original patient on special occasions.

It was noted that the Annual Convention is May 13th-16th and is in Edmonton this year.

Due to the convention falling on the 2nd Wednesday, our May meeting will be on the 1st Wednesday, May 7th. This will enable nurses who are interested in the convention to attend both meetings. Our offical representative from Ward Two is Miss E. Jeffery from Edson.

Members present were Mrs. Marian Ivan, Mr. D. Gylander, Mr. H. Hennig, Mr. L. Miller, Mr. R. Bailey, Mr. R. Akins. Also present were delegates from County Council, Messrs. Zander, Ivan Vowk and George Mann.

A six-man delegation from Wabmun was present at the meeting as were Mr. M. Gormley and Mr. M. Helm, representing the Town of Drayton Valley.

Staff members present were Mr. Syd Moore, Mr. Cece Armstrong and Mrs. J. Cross.

DRAYTON VALLEY MEETING

Mr. Moore read his report on the meeting held in Drayton Valley on March 18th, between the Regional Recreation Council, County Council, other Regional representatives and the Town of Drayton Valley. Three items of concern were discussed:1. facility development and contol. 2. professional leadership and centralization of staff. 3. rural services.

The resulting conclusions were: 1. That the Regional Council or its staff do not intend to control locally-owned facilities, but rather will provide program assistance. 2. that the need for professional staff to remain in Drayton Valley is apparent whether regionalization takes place or not. 3. That two attitudes concerning rural development are held- (a) that people should travel to major centres for services, (b) that services be de-centralized.

These two opposing views, made it impossible to resolve this problem.

BUDGET

Mr. Moore reported that the co-operating local authorities are in the process of reviewing the 1969 budget, and that special budget meetings with Stony Plain, Spruce Grove, Entwistle and County Council will take place shortly, and that he will attend the meetings.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Moore presented his monthly report which dealt with an evaluation of the winter's activities, and information regarding a Youth Representative from the Department of Youth being based at the Regional Office, and items concerning the School Use Agreement.

WABAMUN PRESENTATION

A delegation from Wabamun made a presentation to the Recreation Council concerning available assistance for a covered natural ice arena in that area. They reported plans to raise funds towards this project with the facility scheduled for building in two to three years. Mr. Moore presented the delegation with copies of a feasability study draft for a covered rink.

He also queried them as to whether their planned question could be incorporated into the Recreation Service Analysis planned for the whole region for this spring and summer. The delegation felt that they preferred to deal with their area with their own questionaire. The chairman of the Recreation Council informed the delegation that no policy regarding capital development will be made until after the Service Analysis is completed and that no commitment on the part of the Recreation Council could be made until that time.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDANT'S REPORT

Mr. Armstrong read his report to Council, which dealt with plans being made for leadership and development of the proposed summer programs.

He also reported on a meeting held in Evansburg, between Mrs. Ivan, Mr. Gylander, himself, and the mayor and secretary-treasurer on the Town of Evansburg. The possibility of the town entering the Regional Agreement, and where the new boundaries would be, were two concerns explored. Evansburg was asked to submit a letter regarding a meeting with the Recreation Council, and no further action will take place until the letter is received.

Mr. Hennig requested information regarding applicants who are not employed in the summer program and was informed that the Youth Employment Agency would attempt to find jobs for them, and that they would be approached to work as volunteers, with their applications kept on file for next year.

Mr. Armstrong reported on various clinics being held in golf, baseball and track and field. He informed Council of the Seba Beach Parent-Teachers Association's concern for the school grounds there, and that they will be making a presentation to the County School Committee in that regard.

The Winterburn facility was reported past the half-way point, and should be completed in time for the summer programs.

DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH-YOUTH REP.

Mr. Moore presented a draft letter to the Department of Youth setting up an appointment for a meeting between the Recreation Council and the Deputy Minister concerning the placement of a Youth Representative in the Administrative Centre in Stony Plain.

STONY PLAIN ARENA ASSISTANCE

Mr. Moore recommended to Council facility operational assistance for the Stony Plain Arena be made in the amount of $1600 for 1968. The town received $150 in 1968 in supervisory assistance, therefore would be reimbursed the balance of $1450.

DRAYTON VALLEY

Mr. Mike Gormley expressed his thanks for the opportunity for the Town of Drayton Valley to attend the meeting and assured Council of the Town's continuing support and goodwill. Mr. Miller, Chairman of the Regional Council, reassured Mr. Gormley that the Council was of the same sentiments and thanked him and Mr. Helm for coming.

Father (to daughter's boyfriend) "She'll be right down; care for a game of chess?"

Doctor: "There goes the only woman I ever loved."
Nurse: "Why don't you marry her?"
Doctor: "I can't afford to. She's my best patient."

IN MEMORIUM

In Memory of Ray Harold McGuigan who passed away on May 1st, 1967.

Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest.
In memory's frame we shall keep it
Because he was one of the best.
Our lips cannot tell how we miss him
Our hearts cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how we miss him,
In a home that is lonesome today.

Sadly missed by wife Edna, Arlene, Dale, Alex and granddaughters.
